Best place of the week: 170 East 87th Street

Want to feel serene in the middle of the hustle and bustle?

A private elevator opens into this 1,800-square-foot penthouse, which has three walls of windows and a wraparound terrace. The two-bedroom apartment is sleek and modern. “The sunlight that comes in and the energy is just so amazingly peaceful,” said listing agent Doreen Fuentes, with Barak Realty. “You feel you are on a top of a mountain — turn from left to right and you can see everything.” The upper East Side furnished rental is available for terms between six months and a year for $25,000 a month.
